

Ross, Pope & Company

Chartered Accountants

Business start-up

If you are thinking of starting up your own business, we suggest that you visit the following site: www.bsa.cbasc.org. This site has a variety of useful information such as:

- Basic steps for starting a business;
- Being an entrepreneur;
- Market research;
- Preparing a business plan;
- Choosing a business type;
- Selecting your business name;
- Registering your business;
- Financing;
- Taxation and business number;
- Hiring employees or contractors;
- Regulations;
- Importing and exporting;
- Copyright;
- Doing business on the internet;
- Managing your business;
- Starting a specific business; and,
- Municipalities.

All information is customized for the specific province or territory that will be your place of business.

Ross, Pope & Company Chartered Accountants can assist you in analyzing the business venture and performing a detailed review of your organizational plan in order to achieve the most favorable tax position.